

TANGY & TANTALISING

CAPEL VALE SEMILLON SAUVIGNON BLANC 2008

Pemberton
Western Australia
$ 8 / $ 40

The Capel Vale winery has vineyards all over the state and this is a standout. There is a nice balance of herbaceousness and ripe fruit characters. A good match for most food styles

PEMBERTON WHITE

HOWARD PARK RIESLING 2008

Great Southern
Western Australia
$ 9.50 / $ 48

A benchmark West Australian wine, dry with zingy aromas, fresh citrus/mineral flavours and terrific acidity. Great with poultry, seafood and Asian flavours

GREAT SOUTHERN WHITE

TANGY & TANTALISING

The bouquet of these red or white wines is highly distinctive, both to the nose and the palate. They are delightful, characterful with a light-as-air sensation of freshness

BALANCED & ELEGANT

The harmony of these wines is the culmination of an interesting subtlety of flavours, guaranteed pleasure for those who appreciate delicacy and refinement

FRUITY & LIGHT

SITTELLA VERDELHO 2007

Swan Valley
Western Australia
$ 6.50 / $ 30

On days when the sun is shining, verdelho is the perfect wine for enjoying al fresco. Tropical fruit flavours make this very refreshing. Great with spicy dishes

SWAN VALLEY WHITE

AD HOC STRAW MAN SEMILLON SAUVIGNON BLANC 2008

Margaret River
Western Australia
$ 8 / $ 38

A classic Margaret River blend of two varieties from leading winemaker Larry Cherubino. Terrific with grilled fish, oysters and shellfish

MARGARET RIVER WHITE

WATERSHED SHADES ROSÉ 2008

Margaret River
Western Australia
$ 6.50 / $ 28

Dry rosé styles are all the rage and this demonstrates why. Made from a blend of red grapes, it is fresh, lively and refreshing. Great with spicy dishes or salads

MARGARET RIVER RED

FRUITY & LIGHT

These wines have preserved their flavour of fresh grapes. Pleasant to the taste, they are smooth, frank and readily appreciated by all

SPICY & FULL-BODIED

These are wines of great character. They are robust and full of personality, offering a highly developed and complex palette of aromas

BALANCED & ELEGANT

STONEFISH CHARDONNAY 2007

Geographe
Western Australia
$ 6.50 / $ 31

Everyone loves a chardonnay, and this is an affordable crowd pleaser with lifted fruit, a soft, rich but balanced palate and complexity added by oak. Enjoy with white meat or salads

GEOGRAPHE WHITE

FOREST HILL CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2006

Great Southern
Western Australia
$ 7 / $ 34

From a pioneering winery in the Great Southern – the oldest cool-climate producer in the state – this is dark and very varietal with berry flavours and elegance. Pair it with red meat dishes

GREAT SOUTHERN RED

HAPPS PINOT NOIR 2005

Dunsborough
Western Australia
$ 8 / $ 38

The lighter, earthy flavours of pinot noir make it an ideal companion for poultry dishes, particularly duck. Former schoolteacher Erland Happ makes wines with personality

DUNSBOROUGH RED

PEEL ESTATE CHENIN BLANC 2002

Baldivis
Western Australia
$ 8 / $ 39

Peel Estate is known for its oak-matured chenin blancs, which have length, intensity and character and go well with white meat dishes and pasta

BALDIVIS WHITE

MOUNT TRIO SHIRAZ VIOGNIER 2005

Porongorups
Western Australia
$ 7.50 / $ 37

This label always offers great value for money and winemaker Cavin Berry is one of the state's stars. The addition of a dash of viognier means the wine is soft and aromatic. Try it with grilled meats

PORONGORUPS RED

CAPEL VALE MOUNT BARKER SHIRAZ 2007

Mt Barker
Western Australia
$ 8 / $ 40

One of the most reliable labels in the state; Capel Vale wines are invariably good. This is a lovely cool-climate shiraz with red berry flavours and hints of pepper. Great with game dishes

MT BARKER RED

MAD FISH GOLD TURTLE TEMPRANILLO 2007

South West
Western Australia
$ 9 / $ 45

This Spanish grape variety is becoming hugely popular. It's food friendly, savoury and full of flavour. Partner it with Mediterranean-style dishes
